Radisson-Sacramento
Hotel Earns
Sustainable Certification

The Sustainable Business Program is pleased to announce that the Sacramento Radisson Hotel is the first hotel to be certified in Sacramento.

Radisson has exhibited a number of sustainable practices throughout their entire facility. Located within a mile from Downtown Sacramento, the Radisson Hotel sits on 18 acres of green dynamic grounds. In the center of the hotel, there is a giant lake and natural spring that serves not only as a beautiful setting for a hotel resort, but also as a natural ecosystem for numerous native species and has been observed to reduce pests through the number of birds the lake and thick vegetation attracts.

The hotels water conservation efforts have presented retrofitted toilets and urinals throughout the facility, efficient landscaping practices, and a soon to be implemented oxidation system for their laundry services. They offer incentives for alternative transportation for their employees, store their electronic waste in what they call the "bone yard" until large e-waste drop offs are performed, they have retrofitted all of their lighting, they have a strong recycling program in place, purchase cleaning supplies in concentrated formulas and donate their left over shampoos and soaps to local shelters. Their HVAC system is well maintained and they have seen significant reductions in monthly natural gas bills due to their maintenance.

We congratulate the Radisson Sacramento Hotel for their outstanding sustainable efforts.
